*Please complete the attached Sponsor Affidavit and the attached attorney registration form. You may contact the clerk's office to obtain a date for your admission to the bar.
Attorney Registration Statement: The Court will use the attorney registration form to record your business address in our automated docket system. The docket will produce the mailing labels used to distribute copies of Court notices, orders, judgments, and general correspondence from the Court. The address for all mailings will be the address given on the attorney registration statement on file with the Clerk, regardless of the address shown on the individual pleadings and correspondence. We can list only one address for each attorney. If your address should change, you must complete a supplemental attorney registration form and promptly (within ten (10) days) of such change submit it to the Clerk. (See Local Rule 83.1 (e))
Attorney Bar Roll Number: Each admitted attorney will receive a Bar Roll number, please include this number under your signature line on all pleadings and correspondence filed with the Court. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter.
