DAVID R. HOMER
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Your Honor:

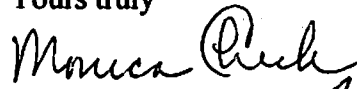

This is my second letter to you, when I sent my first letter I was told by receiver Wm Brown to "correspond with him direct." Well I did that and was ignored. I see by other letters I am not alone in the treatment of McGinn, Smith and Company victims. We are ignored, in other words treated like the scum of the earth.

The people who are SEC, SIPC and whatever have a obligation to protect the investors. We are not being protected we are being defrauded or downright having our investment money stolen. Who are the SEC and SIPC protecting: McGinn, Smith and Company? Who is the receiver working for? It does not seem that the victims of this crime have any rights or is any law enforcement agency stopping the crimes.

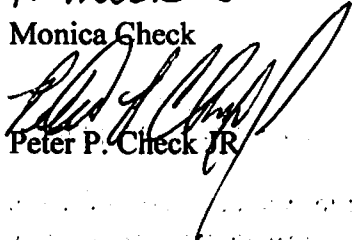

I would like to read on the website the responses that the receiver is giving the victims of this investigation. We have not been advised nor in anyway informed where we stand in this situation. All I read about are the appeals of McGinn, Smith and Company. What appeals have been filed by the receiver for the victims?

I strongly agree with the other letters writers, "THE VICTIMS" that we need to speak up, write a letter to anyone who will listen. Brendan Lyons, Senior Writer of the Times Union an Albany newspaper seem to be fighting for us, he is telling the world. If any victim would like to read his article. website is www.timesunion.com

Yours truly
