ORDER GRANTING GOVERNMENT’S MOTION TO STAY DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS AND TRIAL

On March 5, 2012, the United States Attorney’s Office for the Northern District of New York requested leave to file a motion to intervene and a motion to stay dispositive motions and trial in this case pending completion of the related criminal proceedings, United States v. Timothy M. McGinn and David L. Smith, 12-CR-28 (DNH). On March 15, 2012, during a hearing on the Government's request, the Court granted the Government's motion to intervene and, after learning that the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Receiver took no position on the motion to stay and the other parties consented to the motion to stay, the Court directed the Government to file a proposed order.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED that the motion to stay dispositive motions and the trial pending completion of the related criminal proceedings, 12-CR-28 (DNH) is GRANTED, and it is further ORDERED that the stay does not affect any of the activities or responsibilities of the Receiver pursuant to the Orders of this Court including, without limitation, the Preliminary Injunction Order (Dkt. No. 96).
